MAJOR LUFBERRY IS A VICTIM OF MACHINE GUN BULLET

Was Former Member of Lafayette Escadrille; U. S. Troops Recover Body

U. S. AIRMEN BRING DOWN 2 HUN PLANES

Fighting Is Mostly In the Air As Armies Prepare For New German Smash

Major Lufberry was seen to fall from his machine, which fell a short distance from him. He was possibly wounded or dead before he fell. Earlier reports, according to the American headquarters, stated he was at the time in a long running flight and was flying upside down at 2000 feet.

By FRANK J. TAYLOR

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WITH THE AMERICAN ARMIES IN LORRAINE, May 20.—Major Raoul Lufberry, American "ace" and former member of the Lafayette escadrille, was killed in an air battle over the American lines yesterday.

Lufberry was struck by a machine gun bullet during a running fight and fell from his monoplane.

The body fell in the American front line and was recovered.

Lufberry spent his youth in New Haven, Conn. His parents died and he was adopted by a family at Bourges, France. He ran away at the age of 13 and wandered about the world. In Asia he met the aviator Maro Pourpe, who trained him as an assistant. When he followed Pourpe into the French aviation corps at the outbreak of the war, Lufberry found that he was recognized as an American citizen. He became a lieutenant before he was transferred to the American army.

AMAZING CALM ON AMERICAN FRONT

By WILLIAM PHILIP SIMMS

(United Press Staff Correspondent)

WITH THE BRITISH ARMIES IN FRANCE, May 19 (Night).—Midsummer heat shimmers along the battle lines, where an amazing calm prevails.

I have seldom seen duller days, even during the slushy trench warfare of winter time. Beyond raids and an occasional row raised by the artillery—as though angry at being awakened, the soldiers appear to be having a holiday.

But war planes are constantly whirling over the lines and the air fighting is heavy. The week's total bag of enemy craft probably will come near the record. I hear many enemy stories proving the statement made some months ago that the German planes are now badly constructed. A captured pilot declared that the material is bad, both wires and tubing often snapping in midair, wrecking the planes.

I personally examined the famous Baron Richthofen's machine in which he met his death. I was surprised to detect numerous crudities in his plane which one might think would be extremely well made. The fuselage (body) was made of steel tubing, like that used in making bicycle frames. The points seemed carelessly welded.

German planes frequently fall to pieces during an aerial combat when stunts must be resorted to in order to bring machine guns to bear on their opponents or to escape from a tight hole, as the case may be.

A prisoner said the Germans are having great difficulty in finding airmen. Their casualties were many while training at the station where he learned to fly. He estimated that only 30 per cent of the pupils ever reached the line, the rest being killed while learning to fly.

The scarcity of officers now renders it necessary to send up privates as observers.

NATION STARTS CAMPAIGN FOR RED CROSS RELIEF

'No One Who Loves His Country Can Hesitate to Give,' Says Governor Stephens

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—California, Nevada, Arizona—all of the United States in fact—started out today to raise one hundred million dollars for the American Red Cross.

They started their campaign with a driving force which promised the greatest success. Every city, town and county was organized. District organizations for Southern California and Nevada had been formed and plans laid at a conference two weeks ago in San Francisco. Similar work for Southern California and Arizona had been done at Los Angeles. The result was that the committees in charge of the drive are prepared to penetrate every nook and cranny of the west that all may have an opportunity to contribute to the great work of war relief.

Each community has its own way of opening the drive. Some had great mass meetings. Others sent throngs of workers—bankers, business men, lawyers, workmen, pretty girls and matronly women—into the field to bring in the subscriptions in a big opening day thrust. Ontario, California, held a flower show which will last the entire week and all other social activities will cease. At the flower show Red Cross headquarters will be found. Other towns planned public events for other days of the week.

Marshall Hale, manager of the Red Cross in this district, with scores of assistants, is directing the drive.

RED CROSS PROCLAMATION

By Gov. W. D. Stephens, California
The American Red Cross has been well named "The Greatest Mother in the World." It is founded upon the spirit of absolute selflessness and self-sacrifice and in its ministering to a stricken world it carries into daily practice the endless patience and unbounded sympathy of the mother for her children. It brings comfort and rest to suffering humanity the world over. It takes unto its beneficent bosom the sick and wounded, the homeless and starving and breathes into them new life and strength.

The first war fund raised a year ago has been expended in relief work among the countries devastated by the war, in equipping our own army and navy base hospitals, and other necessary war relief and preparation. We are—from May 20 to May 27, inclusive—asked to contribute another one hundred million dollars.

No one who loves his country can hesitate to give to such a cause and when we give let us remember that the amount we give may determine whether or not the ones we love will lie wounded, suffering and unattended, or be gathered up into merciful arms by "The Greatest Mother in the World."

It is my earnest hope that the contribution California makes will be a demonstration of the deep appreciation which we all feel for the work of the American Red Cross.

IRISH PLOTTERS ARE SHIPPED TO ENGLAND

Wholesale Arrests Unearth
German Intrigue For Revolt In Emerald Isle

WASHINGTON, May 20.—Much of the information upon which British authorities executed their coup de main in rounding up Sinn Fein leaders was furnished by the American secret service, it was learned today. Beyond the admission, neither the State nor Justice departments would go into details of their work on the case.

LONDON, May 20.—With the number of Sinn Feiners under arrest in various parts of Ireland estimated at from 100 to 500 today and the situation apparently well in hand, it came to light that the German government has intrigued for an Irish rebellion ever since the war began.

Even after failure of the plot instigated by Sir Roger Casement, Chaterton Hill, a renegade Irish editor, financed by Germany, published in Prussia a magazine to aid propaganda for an Irish republic.

St. John Kafney, discharged United States consul to Germany, is alleged to have been among the chief propagandists for Germany. He is said to have gone to Stockholm last summer to get Dutch and Scandinavian socialists to support an Irish republic. He carried, it is said, quantities of violent anti-British and pro-German literature.

All the chief plotters are now believed to be in custody.

Countess Markievicz arrived last night, accompanied by a pet dog. She was taken to prison in a taxicab.

"Chief Secretary Shortt is satisfied that the evidence against the Sinn Feiners will completely satisfy a fair court," the Express said today. "Stories of German submarines are likely to figure in the trial."

The Times said: "The evidence against the Sinn Feiners will be published as soon as its authenticity is beyond question."

HOLY HEAD, Eng., May 20.—Forty-six Sinn Feiners, including Edward Devalera, arrested in connection with the alleged pro-German plot in Ireland, have arrived here aboard a British warship. Seventy others are expected today.

ONE PLOTTER SHOT RESISTING ARREST

DUBLIN, May 20.—Quiet prevails throughout Ireland today.

With the exception of the shooting of Ted O'Driscoll at Skibbereen, when he resisted arrest Saturday, there has been no bloodshed in connection with the suppression of the alleged Sinn Fein revolutionary plot.

It is estimated that 150 Sinn Feiners have been arrested.

Four American labor delegates have arrived here, including E. C. McCormick. Their visit will be short.

The people of Dublin went about their work as usual today.

Saturday and Sunday were sunny and trains were packed with golfers and fishermen going to the country.

Field Marshal French, lord lieutenant of Ireland, opening the Whitinside fair, said it was too bad that it could not be opened under the auspices of an allied victory.

TWO NEGRO SOLDIERS HOLD 20 GERMAN

THE AMERICAN FRONT, May 20.—Today's communique reports two soldiers of an American colored regiment operating in a French sector, May 15, while on sentry duty at some distance from one another, were attacked by a German raiding party of 20 men who advanced in two groups, attacking from flank and rear.

The negroes fought bravely in hand-to-hand encounters, one using a bolo after his rifle jammed and the use of the bayonet became impossible. At least one and possibly a second German was cut and a third was shot. The negroes, despite severe wounds and use of grenades by a superior force, continued fighting and prevented capture of other troops.

MOVIES FOSTER PAN-AMERICAN SPIRIT IN BRAZIL

U. S. Films Acquaint South
America With U. S. Land,
Tightens Friendship

BY H. B. ROBERTSON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
RIO DE JANEIRO, May 20.—Before the war the average Brazilian's ignorance of the American and his activities was vast—as vast as the average American's ignorance of the Brazilian and his affairs.

Now, after more than three years of war confusion, the Brazilian has his ideas about the Yankee, and fairly clear ideas they are, too. The change was brought about by an utterly unexpected agent—the American motion picture film.

Much has been said and written about the tightening of Pan-American ties. Conventions were held there at which representatives of the more than twenty western continent republics banqueted and made speeches. Commercial interests strove to weave tight the web of business relations. Diplomats plied plans and policies for the common acceptance of the Monroe doctrine. The press of the two continents clamored for a solidification of American interests. But the man who is "putting it over" is the impresario of the celluloid stage.

For it follows, as day follows night, that Pan-American ties of friendship are possible only when the friends are acquainted with each other. Seeing American implements of progress in action creates a commercial demand for those implements. Living scenes of the American in his home and business make the American character understood and appreciated, and the task of the diplomat becomes easy. Formerly he had to combat the notion that the American's soul was stamped with the dollar sign, and that his instincts were imperialistic. The interest aroused by screen pictures of America has caused demand for news and knowledge of the happenings in that country and the columns of the press now show a fair proportion of events "made in U. S. A." And the picture play's the thing that did it.

Before the war Brazil was receiving practically all its motion picture films from Europe, mostly from France and Italy. But the film business not being considered among necessities, it was one of the first to suffer. Many of the stars of European filmdom literally became "shooting stars," having been called to the trenches, and the feminine portion took to Red Cross and knitting. Materials used in production of films were needed for munitions. Transportation to South America became difficult. The result was that the European supply of films was almost completely cut off.

There was wailing and woe in Brazilian "movie" land. But in the midst of this wailing and woe the American hero, with a sombrero on his head, came galloping to the rescue. He galloped right into the warm heart of the Brazilian, and presto, the maiden was saved, the stolen papers restored, the villain vanquished, and Pan-American solidification became as simple as a recipe for apple pie.

There is scarcely a "movie" house in Brazil that is not showing American films. The same shows that are being put on in every city and village of the United States are doing their turns here, and probably at about the same time. The Brazilian is fond of "action" in his film plots and the American companies are giving it in a way never seen in the European product. William S. Hart, Dustin Farnum, George Walsh, Charlie Chaplin, and all the other stars in the American constellation are twinkling to popular approval down under the Southern Cross.

The popular mind is vastly astonished and somewhat appalled at the movie version of the American girl. Her independence and freedom—her self-assertion and ability to manage for herself—the respect with which she is treated by men with whom she associates as with equals, is the cause of much lifting of eyebrows.

Incidentally, as the moving picture show is the Brazilian's favorite amusement and has had a tremendous development in this country, the American export trade on picture films is a considerable commercial item.

Kill German Propaganda By Stopping Language Study,

SAN FRANCISCO, May 20.—Elimination not only of the German language out of anything tinged with German propaganda from California's public schools was the big question for consideration at today's meeting of the State Board of Education.

A recommendation from Will C. Wood, state commissioner of education was before the board asking that the study of German be discontinued for the period of the war. He believed that a sure method of killing German propaganda in the schools. Along with the elimination of German he also asked that the new list of German books for the next school term be canceled and recommended that local school boards be instructed to censor books already in use, removing therefrom all semblance of pro-Germanism.

GEN. MARCH WILL BE NAMED CHIEF OF STAFF

Higher Rank to Be Granted
By the President Will Mean
Momentous Achievements

BY CARL D. GROOT
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, May 20.—President Wilson this week will name Major General Peyton C. March a full general and chief of staff.

General Tasker H. Bliss, now chief of staff and American representative on the Versailles Council, will become a brevet general.

The important changes mean vastly more than merely the honor of wearing the rare insignia—four shoulder stars; they spell the removal of restrictions on him as acting chief which he encountered because some other major generals out-ranked him.

The change was decided upon today following Secretary of War Baker's consultation with senators Saturday at the war council session. Sounding out their sentiment, he found that March's nomination will undoubtedly pass the Senate quickly and without any opposition.

Baker was told the senate thinks very well of March, who has demonstrated in his brief tenure as acting chief that he is a "live wire" with no respect for red tape and with a hearty hatred for delay or inaction.

For March the change is momentous. Coming in from his post of artillery chief with General Pershing, he found that he was balked, either consciously or unconsciously, by the seniority rule, and that major generals who outranked him sometimes stood in his path.

Military men of discernment have told the United Press that the situation this created was impossible. They predicted that March would make good, but said it could come about only if he were given the full general's rank and the title of chief of staff instead of "acting."

March's record here is one of startling achievements, despite obstacles. To him, perhaps more than to any other single man, is due the credit of increasing ship facilities so that the speeding up of American troop movements could be accomplished.

When he returned from Europe he called in war leaders and read them the dictum that there must be more ships. Inspiring them to great effort, he also cast about himself to improve the situation. Appointment of Major General Goethals as chief of transportation, supplies and traffic was an outcome of this problem, and between the two men systems of economy of space were developed and ships were picked up from unexpected quarters of the globe. Goethals and March are fast friends and are working in the closest harmony.

WASHINGTON, May 20.—The American navy is increasing its patrol force in European waters, the Navy Department officially stated today.

This increased patrol is one of the factors in the decrease in submarine sinkings. The aircraft contingent is being augmented and the ship forces are being enlarged.

Acting Secretary of the Navy Benson declared the department felt the submarine situation has improved, but the department would be loath to make optimistic predictions lest the people relax and the submarine campaign burst out with renewed vigor.

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WITH THE FRENCH ARMIES IN THE FIELD, May 19.—(Night.)—In preparation for resumption of their offensive, the Germans have concentrated 140 of their best divisions between the North Sea and the Oise. These comprise two-thirds of their entire army and total in round numbers 1,680,000 men, including 1,120,000 infantrymen.

This mass, which includes all the divisions the Germans were able to re-organize and reform after their March offensive, is divided into five great armies as follows:

The fourth army, comprising seven divisions (84,000 men) between the North Sea and Ypres, commanded by von Arnim the sixth army, numbering twenty-seven divisions (324,000 men), between Ypres and Givenchy, commanded by von Quast; the seventeenth army, between Givenchy and Buquoy, commanded by von Bulow; the second army, between Buquoy and Moreuil, commanded by von der Marwitz, and the eighteenth army, between Moreuil and Noyon, commanded by von Ruetz.

The last three armies, comprising forty-eight divisions (576,000 men), make a total of eighty-two divisions (984,000 men) in the front line between the sea and the Oise. Fifty-eight divisions (696,000) are stationed in reserve behind these for the purpose of feeding the attack, when once launched, and filling up the losses.

There is every indication that the coming resumption of the offensive will have the same objectives as the first—to threaten Amiens; to cut the evacuation of the Ypres salient and to separate the main British and French armies, thus forcing an evacuation of Northern France and permitting the establishment of a new line from the mouth of the Somme to Noyon by way of Montdidier.

The Germans thus would realize their long cherished dream of submarine bases on the channel, from which they could menace the Allies' maritime traffic.

Against this dream the Allies' unified command has taken every precaution and is awaiting with supreme confidence the coming drive.

News from the Courts

DISPUTED AUTO WILL BE SUBJECTED TO COURT TRIAL

One of the aftermaths of the visit of S. Diaz Garza, smooth Spanish don, to the northern end of the county is to be threshed out in the superior court.

An automobile is concerned. The New England Motor Car Co. claims the automobile, but that claim is vigorously resisted by A. H. Sifton, garage owner of Fullerton.

Garza got the machine, a Dodge, and so far as can be learned here he paid for it with a check that was of no value. He secured a bill of sale, and presented that bill of sale when he went to Sifton's garage offering the automobile for sale.

Garza is nowhere in this part of the state. That is, the officers have not been able to locate him, and they say they are satisfied that he has successfully flown the coop. There is a warrant out for his arrest for giving a $50 worthless check to William Jackson, a resident of the north end of the county.

The New England Motor Car Co. sued Sifton for possession of the automobile. Today Sifton's answer was filed by Attorney T. L. McFadden. That answer sets up the bill of sale given by the New England Motor Car Co. as proof that that company does not own the machine.

TODAY'S CARICONET

MEN OF 21 WILL REGISTER FOR DRAFT, 5TH

Local Board Expects About 450 Men Added to the Rolls

Men who have become 21 years of age since June 5, 1917, will be registered for the draft. Orders for the registration to take place on June 5 have been received by the two exemption boards in this county.

It is estimated that the registration of men of 21 will be about one-tenth the total registration of men of the ages of 21 to 31 made last year. If that proportion is maintained there will be a registration of about 450 men in the county, of whom 220 will be in District No. 1.

This morning C. J. Overshiner, chief clerk at the local board, was making preliminary arrangements for the registration on June 5. There will be but one registration place in Santa Ana, and that will be at exemption board headquarters in the Orange County Business College building on North Main street.

At Orange, registration will be at the office of City Clerk D. G. Wettlin. Overshiner has not yet made arrangements for other registration points.

ALL READY FOR THE START THIS AFTERNOON

This morning the nine men who are to leave Santa Ana this afternoon for Ft. McDowell, near San Francisco, were present for roll call. After the exercises at the courthouse at 4 o'clock, the men will go to the Santa Fe depot, where they will take the 5:27 p. m. train.

Guy E. Skidmore of Laguna Beach has been placed in charge of the contingent, with William R. Westbrook of Whittier as his assistant.

Martin M. Miles of San Juan Capistrano is to go with the contingent as a registrant from Yuma. Joe C. Elam will go from Statesville, N. C., and Clarence Nelson, formerly a movie operator here, will go from Houston, Tex., both for this district. The eight men who will go for this district from here today are:

George G. Flesouras, 113 E. Fifth; Vernon G. Stanfield, El Modena; Guy Eben Skidmore, Laguna Beach; T. Lambacopoulos, 116 1/2 E. Fourth; N. B. Pappageorgopoulos, 414 1/2 W. Fourth; Wm. R. Westbrook, Whittier; Benjamin Brown, Huntington Beach; George Ray Hubbard, Los Angeles; Martin R. Miles, San Juan Capistrano, for Yuma.

Alternate, Dale E. Talbott, 526 S. Broadway.

EXAMINATIONS FOR DAVIS FARM SCHOOL

LOS ANGELES, May 20.—County Superintendent of Schools Mark Keppel announces that on June 28, at his office, 700 Hall of Records, he will conduct entrance examinations to the University Farm School. This examination is open to young men 18 years of age or older who are not graduates of a high school accredited to the university.

"There are many young men in our country who are making their living and expect to do so in some kind of ranch work; young men who have not found it possible to go to a university," said Keppel. "These young men will find the University Farm School an opportunity to secure from one to three years' education and training that will increase their earning power as is shown by the success of more than 1000 students who have attended the University Farm School."

"By taking the examinations arranged for by the county superintendent, young men will know before they leave home whether or not they will be admitted to the school. Registration, September 27, opens September 30."

GOOD SAFETY RECORD

OTTAWA, Can., May 20.—Despite wartime congestion, heavy traffic, and loss of many employees to the armed service, the Canadian government railways did not kill one passenger during the fiscal year just ended, according to a report of the department of railways and canals.

Only thirteen employees were killed, and but twenty-one passengers were injured, in operating a car mileage of 204,369,625 miles.

SEVERAL KING GEORGE SUBJECTS ARE NOW U. S. CITIZENS

King George lost sixteen subjects this morning when four natives of Canada and one native of England were granted final papers of naturalization.

The class was examined in Judge Thomas' courtroom, and the five men were successful in passing the examination showing their knowledge of American institutions.

The five men who were naturalized were William F. Schimming, Anaheim R. D. 1, aged 41; Alfred H. M. Theal, 2525 Santiago street; Austen E. Clark, Santa Ana R. D. 7, aged 28; Gustave C. L. Maahs, Orange, 40; Melville F. Smith, 1109 West Fourth, 37. Clark was the only unmarried man of the five, and he, a native of England, was the only one not born in Canada.

With Schimming went the naturalization of his wife and three children; with Theal, a wife; with Maahs, a wife and four children, one of them a babe of three months; with Smith, a wife.

One interesting point was raised. It appeared that the naturalization of an adopted child does not change with the naturalization of a foster parent. In the case that arose today, however, there was no disappointment, for the adopted child is a native of California.

The Cost is all figured out

1—A Dainty Cotton Net Dress for $7.50

—White Net is a strong favorite this season, and we have one of fine quality, 72 inches wide, which we suggest for this dress, which is only $1.40 per yard. As a trimming we suggest the use of white Satin Ribbon in bands, a wide Satin Ribbon sash. The whole costs only $7.50 for this dainty combination, as follows:

3 yards White Net$4.20 Satin Buttons and findings...$.80
1 Bolt Satin Ribbon$1.25 Satin Ribbon for sash, 2 1/2 yds $1.25

2—A Lovely White Silk Net Dress for $7.50

—The shimmering silk net will not require elaborate trimming, which explains why you can get such a dress for this price. The white silk net is 40 inches wide and sells for $1.00 per yard. By using the proper pattern, 5 yards will make the dress, and the cost is figured out as follows:

5 yds. White Silk Net$5.00 1 1/2 yd. Satin Ribbon for girdle $1.00
3 yds. Silk Net Lace$1.00 Findings to complete$.50

3—A Pretty White Organdy Dress Lace Trimmed, $7.50

—Crisp white Organdy is a most attractive material, and is in strong demand this season. We show an excellent quality 42 inches wide at 75c per yard. To trim this we suggest a fine Venise lace of high quality, and we have numerous patterns in stock. The cost runs:

4 yds. Fine White Organdy...$3.00 2 yds. Ribbon for girdle.....$1.00
4 yds. Venise Lace$3.00 Findings to complete$.50

4—A White Flaxon Dress, with Brocaded Sash, $7.40

—White Flaxon is the most serviceable of the fine white materials. By using an especially beautiful sash, and simpler lace a very pretty dress can be constructed, as follows:

4 yds. Fine White Flaxon$3.00 4 yds. Lace for trimming$1.40
2 1/2 yds. Brocaded Ribbon$2.50 Findings to complete$.50

5—A White Voile Dress Trimmed in Filet Lace, $7.47

—The beauty of this dress would lie in the exquisite trimming, as we show some lovely Voile laces with fine Filet edges. A White Voile Ribbon Sash would complete the dress as follows:

4 yds. Fine White Voile$2.40 2 1/2 yds. Ribbon for sash$1.00
3 3/4 yds. Voile Embroidery...$3.57 Findings to complete$.50

6—An Organdy Dress trimmed in Organdy Laces, $7.38

—An "all organdy" combination lovely in its simplicity, using an organdy lace with dainty Venise edge and taffeta ribbon for the sash. We show a fine material at 50c per yard, and the whole would cost:

4 yds. White Organdy$2.00 3 yds. Taffeta Ribbon for sash $1.05
4 1/2 yds. Organdy lace$3.83 Findings to complete$.50

"KILL THE CAT" LAW

ALBANY, N. Y., May 20.—The Thomas cat with the Caruso voice had better stay indoors in New York from now on.

Any doubting Thomas may be convinced, either by going out for a solo number of nights in succession, or by reading a law just signed by Gov. Whitman.

The new law is designed for protection of birds, but easily may be made to work for protection of humans also. It provides that anyone over 21, holding a hunting license, may kill a cat found at large "hunting or killing any bird protected by law."

CHAUTAUQUANS OUT $11 EACH

Bureau Knocks Off About $250, Leaving Over $700 Still to Be Paid

The recent Chautauqua held in Santa Ana was a financial failure, as sixty-nine guarantors are realizing today, as they are being called upon to dig up $11 apiece to make good the shortage.

Last years Chautauqua was a big success. There was a fund of over $500 realized over and above the purchase price of $2600 paid by the local guarantors for the Chautauqua. Its success was such that there was no difficulty in getting the contract for the 1918 Chautauqua signed up.

Conditions have changed since the 1917 Chautauqua. At least, the attendance this year was so light that instead of making money, the Chautauqua went far behind. With calls being made by numerous war activities, the guarantors decided not to make a drive, by which they could have inveigled a goodly portion of the contract money from the public. They decided that if there was a deficit they would stand it, rather than make the drive.

In addition to that, the program proved to be less enticing than last years program. Some of the guarantors believed that they had a legitimate kick on the drawing power of the program as it developed here.

Yesterday there was a conference with a representative of the Redpath-Horner Chautauqua people, and the representative gave a discount of $250, the Liberty bond purchased with last year's profit was turned in, and there remains something over $700 to be dug up by the guarantors.

ANSWERING THE CALL

This week every community in Orange County is going to open its pocket books that they may give to the American Red Cross, aptly called "the greatest mother on earth."

We are called upon for the filling of quotas, but we have gone to work regardless of quotas. When one does a thing for the Red Cross, there is no such thing as a limit that is anything less than all that can be done.

There is not a community in the county that proposes to stop at its quota. There is not a community in the county that does not propose to do its very best.

America has been at war for thirteen months and nine days. In that time one of the most marvelous developments has been the development of the Red Cross. Its work is beyond comprehension. No living man or woman can adequately describe it. The figures showing expenditures are mere matter of fact symbols. They cannot convey to us anything of the devotion and sacrifice of Red Cross workers everywhere, and they cannot tell to us anything of the misery and despair and suffering that have been given relief under the tender, motherly care of the American Red Cross.

Money is necessary to carry on the work. Money—a large amount of money—must be had, and we have been called upon to raise our proportion. This is the week in which we are to do it.

We will raise it. No call such as the call of the Red Cross will ever pass unanswered in this fair country of ours.

BUYING LAND

Americans in general are showing a stronger tendency than usual to invest in land. It is an excellent tendency, from public and private viewpoint alike.

Roger Babson, the statistical expert, recently made a strong argument for the wider distribution of land in the United States and other allied countries. He was emphasizing land ownership as the best basis of social and economic contentment and stability of government. The German victory in Russia, he explained, was due to the fact that in Russia ninety-five per cent of the people owned only five per cent of the land. The reason the Russians won't rise up and fight Germany now, despite their grievances, is that the peasants, having seized the land, feel that they must stay at home to make sure of possession.

In Great Britain much has been done since the war started to eliminate this evil, breaking up the big estates and giving the masses access to the soil in their own right. Plans are being prepared for a great extension of the policy throughout the British empire after the war. Italy, too, is moving along the same line. France does not have to, because France is already a nation of small, independent landholders—a fact that explains much of her virile democracy and economic strength.

America is not cursed with landlordism as most older countries are. But there has been a disquieting tendency in the last decade or two toward the growth of huge estates. Public policy demands the discouraging of that tendency.

The most effective argument for buying land in this country, however, is the private consideration of personal independence and profit. In a world of shifting values, land remains the most permanent and certain form of wealth. It means food and other natural resources—the things men must always have, the things on which civilized life is built. And land in general keeps on steadily rising in value. Any man or woman who seeks some form of wise investment, after Liberty Bonds, isn't likely to go wrong in buying land.

SPEED UP

"Everything we have seen in France and Great Britain," says a member of the American labor delegation visiting those countries, "has emphasized the conviction that America must get into this war with both hands and both feet. She must use all her resources and send over the greatest number of men possible."

"We know Germany can be whipped, but the sooner America sends all her resources the sooner the job will be finished. It is not going to be finished until that is done; and every day lost, every man withheld, is merely causing unnecessary sacrifices."

It is the same verdict given by every American who obtains first-hand knowledge of conditions on the battle front. It harmonizes with the conclusions of Secretary Baker, after his European tour. It is what the newspaper and magazine correspondents have been saying right along.

Our government is now acting on this policy, and our public is supporting it. Everything today is speeding up. The nation is getting its war stride. And that fact in itself is a certain prophecy of success, for this nation never yet failed in anything that it undertook in down-right earnest.

WHO ELSE'S SON?

A father came to Senator Pomerene of Ohio to thank him for helping to get his son admitted to an officers' training camp.

"There is another favor I want to ask of you," he said. "I wish you would have him assigned to some duty where he will not be in danger."

The senator looked his visitor in the eye and asked: "What father's son would you have me put in his place?"

That question went to the very heart of the matter. It is the final answer to every request for special treatment of any man of military age.

There can be no substitution in this war. And to the credit of our government be it said that there is so little of it that the exceptions are almost negligible. The draft was adopted for the very purpose of correcting inequalities, eliminating special privilege, putting every eligible man on the same level. And it is being applied as it was meant to be.

WE CAN WIN

Although there are some people who ask, "Why is a patriotic button?" there are others who enjoy wearing the latest tin disk with its design or inscription of loyalty and enthusiasm.

A pin of Canadian design ought to be popular. It is reported as having wide circulation in Maine, upper New York state and northern Vermont, as well as across the national border. It's a simple thing.

Across a background of United States and Canadian flags is printed this neat statement:

WE

Of course we can, and will. And although the names of all the rest of the allies can't be put on one small button, they're included in spirit.

If nothing but the bright side of characters should be shown, we should sit down in despondency and think it utterly impossible to imitate them in anything. The sacred writers related the vicious as well as the virtuous actions of men; which had this moral effect that it kept mankind from despair, into which otherwise they would naturally fall were they not supported by the recollection that others had offended like themselves, and by penitence and amendment of life had been restored to the favor of Heaven.—Selected.

The Kaiser is described as "jubilant over the Roumanian peace." A little while ago he was jubilant over the Ukrainian peace. And now the only way he can keep those Ukrainians peaceable is to hang them.

One of Germany's most superhuman achievements is taking the "nots" out of the Ten Commandments.

Fighting to Win

(From the Fresno Republican)

The question, "What are we fighting for?" is asked less often and less critically than it was. Even the Bolsheviks are learning that the answer "to win" is not so stupid as they thought. For there are two stages in any fight: first, to stop the aggressor, and second, to prevent it from happening again; and it is not necessary to confuse the first stage by premature consideration of the second. When a Malay pirate runs amuck, the first thing is to stop that muck-runner, by killing him, if necessary. Whether he is muck-running from drugs, from despair or from religion is not to the point; and whether the general suppression of muck-running calls for education, police, Christianity or disarmament need not be decided until after the immediate maniac is killed or captured.

The war situation is analogous. Germany ran amuck in the world. The first job is to stop Germany, and the next is to keep her stopped. What might have stopped her before is a question for history, and what will keep her stopped afterward is a question for diplomacy. Stopping her now is the problem of the war. Ways to keep her stopped—or to keep any other nation stopped which may emulate her example—are various. Some are better than others. It is well for those who have leisure and information to study and compare these methods. But the method we shall finally adopt will not be the one that is best, but the one we can get. The more conclusive the victory now, the more positive the settlement for the future can be.

An inconclusive victory may leave us no choice but the next-worst of the methods now discussible—that the whole world shall arm as Germany arms. The only method worse than that is the method followed before—of watching Germany arm while we did not. Any one of us can work out on paper a better method than either of these. But none of us, nor all of us together, can get any better method practically adopted unless Germany is first decisively beaten. Which method we can then get adopted will depend on how thoroughly Germany is beaten, on how much is left of the rest of us, and on how much moral confidence in each other has survived the strain of war. It is too early to conclude now that we will do certain things and will not do certain other things, in remaking the world after the war. The practical situation which the war leaves behind it may compel us to do some things which are not now our aim of war, or may make impossible many things on which we are now determined.

The facts then, and not debate or proclamation now, will determine this question. What we are fighting for is first to win the war, and then to patch up the world as best we can, to make it as nearly safe as possible against another such war. These aims everybody understands. On any further definition of aims no two could now agree, and they could do nothing about it if they did.

Bud Flivver's Observations

 It's a wise man—Who always knows his wife—And gives her—His attention—When she wears—A new dress—

 The other day—I went into—Bige Biglum's store—To buy some—X. Y. Z. cough drops—

 And Bige was standing—At the back counter—Talking to—A fussy looking dame—With peroxide hair—

 And Mrs. Biglum came in—And she said—“Howdy do” to me—And asked me—How was the folks—

 And went on back—

 And she stood there—While the blonde chicken—Talked low to Bige—And he didn't seem—To notice his wife—

 And pretty soon—She gave her head a toss—And stuck up her nose—And walked away—

 And she went—To the front window—And stood there—Looking out—And tapping the floor—With her foot—

 And she didn't—Look around—When the peroxide dame—Smiled herself—Out of the store—

 And Bige went up to her—And he said—“Was there something—You wanted, Madam?”

 And she looked around—And said—“Oh, is it possible—That you have condescended—To speak to your wife?”

 And Bige was shocked—To see who it was—And he told her—He didn't know her—In the new dress—

 And she said—“Maybe you'll—Know me better—In my kitchen dress”—And she sailed out—

 And Bige shook his head—And he said—“I wish I had—Noticed her—When she came in”—

 And I told him—He would wish it—More than ever—When he got home—

 And I told him—It was bad enough—Not to recognize her—But she seemed to be peeved—About the confidential chat—With the other woman—

 And he said—“Yes, it was—A secret matter—She was talking about—And didn't want—Anyone to hear”—

 And I said—“Don't tell your wife that—But tell her—How nice she looked—In her new dress—And maybe she'll—Speak to you tomorrow”—By Bud.

Sunny Southland in Brief

OXNARD.—Charles C. Perkins, head of the Lima Bean Growers' Association, member of the Board of Supervisors, and owner of extensive ranch properties near Camarillo, left for Washington, D. C., having been summoned to a conference with Herbert Hoover in regard to the bean situation in California.

COLTON.—Mrs. John Bennett has earned the title of star knitter for the Colton chapter of the Red Cross, having turned out fifty-six pairs of socks. Of late she has put a cross-stitched Red Cross on each sock, just below the purling and at headquarter it is called the Bennett trade mark.

CALIPATRIA.—W. L. Stites has opened up another practical source of revenue for the California Red Cross. He has donated two sacks of prime milo maize seed. This seed will be put in the ground by ranchers, and the crop, in turn, donated to the Red Cross. It is believed that the seed will sow thirty acres, which may net the Red Cross $2000 from two sacks of seed and the labor of patriotic farmers.

VENICE.—A baby seal, which apparently has escaped from its parents, was captured on the beach at Playa del Rey by George Turner of Del Rey. A watch is being kept for the parents.

OXNARD.—Sergeant W. M. Hart, in service in France, has written to friends here that the boys are learning new dance steps, mentioning the wire wiggle, French stumble, muddy glide, and boxcar flop. The "boxcar flop" refers to dodging the giant shells known to the soldiers as "boxcars." The other terms will be readily understood.

REDONDO BEACH.—Three huge fish, commonly known as jewfish, were caught from the end of the municipal pier here. The monsters weighed 408, 278 and 285 pounds, respectively, and the fights to land them lasted upward of an hour, thousands of pleasure-seekers witnessing the struggle. C. E. Allen and A. E. Putter, both of this city, were the lucky anglers. Allen caught one and Putter two.

VENICE.—When the siren fire whistle blew long blasts at 2 o'clock in the morning, Mrs. Jeanette James sat up in bed suddenly at her apartment in the Rose Palace apartments, exclaimed: "What's that?" and fell back dead. Heart failure is given as the cause. She was 55 years old and the wife of Barnett James.

MASS MEETING TO DEVISE PLANS TO CLEAN UP CEMETERY

Citizens Will Gather Tomorrow Evening on Important Matter

A mass meeting of citizens and particularly those who have lots in the old cemetery is to be held at the City Council Chambers tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock to discuss plans for a clean up day there before Decoration Day and incidentally to get the sentiment of lot owners as to the best method of arranging for future care of the grounds.

Organization for perpetual care of the grounds has been under consideration for some months and recently the Chamber of Commerce appointed a committee to investigate the proposition and make some kind of a recommendation. The sentiment of the people will be gotten at the meeting tomorrow and everyone who has an idea that could be whipped into form for the organization of an association is urged to attend and express himself.

The streets and alleys of the old cemetery are overrun with weeds and little or no regular attention is being given to keeping them in presentable condition.

Decoration Day is near at hand and it is the desire of those who are at the head of the movement that the streets and alleys be cleared before that day. It is planned to set a day when every one who can shall report there with hoes, rakes and shovels for an onslaught on the weeds.

Owners are requested to make personal effort to clean up their lots and to volunteer in helping to clean the streets and alleys.

Red Cross Activities

When the Red Cross Shop was opened for business the doubt of its success existed in the minds of many. That it has been a success is proven by the fact that $1000 was turned into the Red Cross fund at the end of the first six weeks, and more is ready at the end of the three months.

But it depends on the public and not on the shop committee whether this success continues to make money. There must be goods to sell. Have you sent your contribution? Not necessarily a discard—why not deny yourself something for the cause and show your patriotism in this way?

A call has come for high-top shoes, size 5 1/2 or 6.

If you have a few guests to entertain, why not do it at the Red Cross Shop? Make arrangements with the committee for that day. So much easier than getting up a meal at home; then there is the novelty of it. Best of all, you help a good cause.

Little Marguerite Taylor, but 6 years of age, and residing at 1650 East Fourth street, has turned into the Red Cross $1.50, which she made by selling vegetables and flowers.

Remember the Shop is open Saturdays to any church society, lodge, or organization wishing to hold a food sale or anything of that kind. Make arrangements with Mrs. Shafer, chairman of the Shop.

A call for a gas table lamp has come to the Shop.

F. C. Blauer offers $2.50 first prize, $1.50 second prize, and $1.00 third prize for best decorated knitting bags, the bags to be given to the Red Cross.

The Red Cross cleared $35 on the sale of the song, "There's a Girl Who Is Waiting for Me." It was sung by Mrs. Cecil Fross Willets at the West End and at Clune's Auditorium Saturday evening.

By some unfortunate oversight, the Red Cross failed to thank the Santa Ana Art Guild for the fine donation of over $52. This came from an exhibition they gave late in April.

Thanks are due G. P. Campbell of the Worden Printing Co. for 1000 directions for light-weight socks. This is the second thousand since January 1st for light-weight socks. Doesn't that show that some knitting is being done?

This past week two shipments were made as follows: 290 pairs of socks, 260 taped bed shirts.

Mrs. Anna Gale is now in San Francisco on a visit to her soldier boy, Hugh. She expects to visit Red Cross headquarters while there, so will return full of information for our workers.

At the Army now 150 "comfort kits" are in process of completion. It takes much time to make all the little inside belongings after the bag is made. Lend a hand, if you can.

The Tustin chapter has already been "written up" but we want them to know how proud we feel of them and their splendid work.

The Sixth Economics Section at its meeting Friday, made two dozen comfort bags; not the "inner works," but the bags.

The Boy Scouts of troop 6 earned and donated $1 to the Red Cross.

The Summer Shop will help you in choosing appropriate gifts for the graduates, brides, soldiers or any one else you wish to remember with gifts or cards. There is a wonderful variety of unusually attractive and practical things for the season, and they are new and fresh and original. Visitors are always welcome at the Shop, and helpful suggestions are a part of the service that is at the disposal of those who desire it.

DO HONOR TO ITALY FRIDAY, ASKS WILSON

Next Friday, May 24, is the third anniversary of the entrance of Italy into the war on the side of the Allies, and President Wilson asks that Italian flags be displayed on that day and that other means be used to do honor to Italy in the war. The President issued the following statement:

"May 24, 1918, marks the third anniversary of Italy's entrance into the great war. The President calls the attention of his fellow citizens to the burden which Italy has borne so heroically during the three years; to the valiant struggle of her armies; to the no less valiant struggle of her civilian population; to her fortitude in defeat and her moderation in victory. He suggests that on this anniversary the people of the United States by the display of Italian flags on public and private buildings, by meetings and demonstrations and by all other appropriate means, show their devotion to their great-hearted brothers in arms and their gratitude for her services in the cause of universal democracy."

IN CALIFORNIA

The golden sun assured, Pouring its wealth of warmth On fields and groves, Pale orange blossoms filled The purple air with myrrh— Love longed to linger here— Where glad hearts thrilled. Tall mountains towered past The blackest shadows cast; Beyond us—eastward still— The storm-cloud's knell Told in a minor strain Of devastation pain; Death was to reign again Where shrapnel fell.

The thought upholds, is true That Love has carried us Beyond the mountains blue Across the water.

Though there are miles between, Still in a poignant dream Our love is brought to us, To California.

"I must awake—awake! Hail England, France, the States! His voice is stilled—instead The guns reverberate.

The dream was sweeter far To California— But Faith, and Hope, and Love Must bear with War.

ANAHEIM STARTS OUT FOR $16,000 QUOTA

ANAHEIM, May 20.—The stage is all set for the second Red Cross drive which was started here this morning. The various captains and their teams met yesterday afternoon at the office of the Anaheim Union Water Co. for final instructions.

Chairman Gibbs has appointed a committee of women to assist in securing subscriptions and Mrs. H. M. Adams was named as chairman. The other members of the committee are: Mrs. J. F. Ahlborn, Mrs. G. R. Messias, Mrs. Wm. Jackson, Mrs. J. A. Claves, Mrs. W. P. Quanton, Mrs. J. R. Van der Veer, Mrs. J. L. Beebe, Mrs. J. T. Lyon, Mrs. J. W. Wallop, Mrs. O. H. Renner, Mrs. R. L. Coons, Mrs. J. M. Casey, Mrs. C. A. Griggs, Mrs. V. T. Loly, and Mrs. William Llewellyn.

The team captains are all on edge and a spirited rivalry is sure to develop in a race to be the first to get the quota assigned to each team. It is no small job to raise $16,000 in one week in a city of this size but the committee is bound to show the rest of the state that no matter what our quota in the several war relief funds that the Mother Colony is patriotic enough to respond.

SEAL BEACH WILL GO OVER ITS QUOTA

SEAL BEACH, May 20.—The campaign started here today with a committee of eight men and women at work. John H. May, postmaster, is chairman of the committee and he has appointed seven lieutenants. The latter will work in blocks and among assigned lines of business. The quota for Seal Beach is only $400, and Chairman May expects to get a good deal more than this, and will finish the work in two days. Among those who are helping him are J. P. Transue, Bert St. John, Miss Dyson, Mrs. Mayer, Mrs. Thomas, Mrs. Ira Patterson and Miss Alice Brown. There will be no special patriotic exercises in connection with the campaign.

ASK DONATIONS FOR JUNIOR RED CROSS BAZAAR SATURDAY

All Proceeds of Poly High Event Will Go to Aid of Our Boys 'Over There'

There is one way in which everyone can co-operate with the Junior Red Cross which few of us have thought of. The Girls' League of Poly High, which is giving the big Red Cross bazaar next Saturday, needs donations. Everyone has something which he does not need. Some one else is undoubtedly in need of that very thing, and so, if each person would donate that thing which he did not need, it would aid greatly. Perhaps one little boy has two kittens or dogs and another little boy has none. That other little boy would be very glad to buy one, especially if he knew that he was helping the Red Cross by doing so.

Few people realize the great work the Junior Red Cross is doing, and the great help it would be if they would all co-operate by donating everything they can. Let all give as much as they are able, so that the Junior Red Cross can add many dollars to those they have already spent for yarn and surgical dressings for the boys "over there."

GOES TO FRANCE INSTRUCTOR IN ATHLETICS

Billy Magee, Former Football Star, Answers Call For Volunteers

William Magee, known to nearly everyone who knows him at all as Billy Magee, is to go to France as an instructor in athletics.

Magee is foreman for Jerome O'Neil upon the cattle ranches of the O'Neil ranches in Orange and San Diego counties.

When a student at Santa Clara College and later at Stanford University he was one of the best known athletes on the Pacific coast. He was a Stanford fullback in 1901 and 1902, and was not only a pile driver on punts but was also a fast, daring, open-field runner. It was Magee's punting that first brought him into the limelight. He was a master of the spiral, and in the many punting duels that occurred in the many big games in which Magee played he never met his equal in ground gaining punting. He knows baseball. At Santa Clara he was a member of a championship team. His brother was a Coast League pitcher some fifteen years ago.

Recently he got a letter from Dr. Reynolds, an old Stanford athlete, asking him if he was in a position to go to France as an athletic instructor. "I am ready to go; send me details," was Magee's response.

He is expecting a call within a few days and he was informed that he would be sent to a preliminary training school soon.

Lubricate New Car
It is not safe to assume that all parts of the car that have been delivered to the new owner have been properly lubricated. It sometimes happens that grease cups have been left unfilled when the car was shipped, and that wheel bearings, universal, steering gears, etc., have been overlooked. It is always well to go carefully over the lubricating system of the new car and see that it has its due allotment of lubricant.

THIN PEOPLE SHOULD TAKE PHOSPHATE

Nothing Like Plain Bitro-Phosphate to Put on Firm, Healthy Flesh and to Increase Strength, Vigor and Nerve Force

Judging from the countless preparations and treatments which are continually being advertised for the purpose of making thin people fleshy, developing arms, neck and bust, and replacing ugly hollows and angles by the soft curved lines of health and beauty, there are evidently thousands of men and women who keenly feel their excessive thinness.

Thinness and weakness are usually due to staid nerves. Our bodies need more phosphate than is contained in modern foods. Physicians claim there is nothing that will supply this deficiency so well as the organic phosphate known among druggists as bitro-phosphate, which is inexpensive and is sold by Rowley Drug Co. and most all druggists under a guarantee of satisfaction or money back. By feeding the nerves directly and by supplying the body cells with the necessary phosphoric food elements, bitro-phosphate quickly produces a welcome transformation in the appearance; the increase in weight frequently being astonishing.

This increase in weight also carries with it a general improvement in the health. Nervousness, sleeplessness and lack of energy which nearly always accompany excessive thinness, soon disappear, dull eyes become bright, and pale cheeks glow with the bloom of perfect health.

CAUTION:—Although bitro-phosphate is unsurpassed for relieving nervousness, sleeplessness and general weakness, it should not, owing to its remarkable flesh-growing properties, be used by anyone who does not desire to put on flesh.

STRING SHERIFF UP TO OAK TREE AT COUNTY PARK

C. E. Jackson Handled Without Gloves By Mob on Saturday

Sheriff C. E. Jackson is sore in body as the result of a mob wreaking vengeance on him and stringing him up to an oak tree in the Orange County Park Saturday afternoon. And he isn't the only one sore in body as the result of a frolic at the park by the employees of the sugar plants of the Santa Ana Sugar Company, Southern California Sugar Company and the Holly Sugar Company at Huntington Beach.

The sugar employees and their families were out for the day—and all were there, the crowd being estimated at 600. "Secret Stuff" of the character that Sam Stein pulls off, and with Sam in on the game, was incidental to the afternoon features of the program of the day. Trumped-up charges were preferred against certain members of factory forces and execution of the warrants of arrest was imposed on Sheriff Jackson. Sam Stein was appointed a deputy for the occasion, and when the sheriff and his deputy and a newspaper man broke in on the fun of the "boys" and "girls" the latter were horrified. Some of them saw their loved ones in chains, or rather being led with handcuffs clasped on their wrists, and not being in on the secret, sustained nervous shocks.

Among those taken into custody were H. A. Bennings, general superintendent of the Holly plants; C. A. Johnson, manager of the plants; M. A. McCreery, agricultural expert; H. C. Bullen, general engineer; N. W. Draper, manager of the Southern California, and Walter Cox, representative of the Los Angeles Rubber Company, who was a guest of the sugar employees.

Rough and tumble work was necessary to place the shackles on a number of the men whose chief business is to make sweet things, and two or three of them broke away from the officers.

The complaints ranged from forgery to the use of too much sugar in tea and coffee and were sworn to by O. J. Holden and O. U. Skinnem. The criminals were haled before E. M. Smiley, judge of the kangaroo court, and after an impartial trial were found guilty and four of them were fined $1 each, the fines going to the Red Cross.

McCreery was the first prisoner and following the sentence imposed by Judge Smiley, the mob grabbed him and strung him up from the limb of a big oak tree near the pavilion. When he confessed the crime with which he was charged, he was released.

Manager Johnson was one of the men who contributed $1 and he as well as the others dug up the cash with good grace.

Before the last prisoner had been examined by Prosecuting Attorney T. B. Talbert—and the attorney for the defendants, the mob grabbed Sheriff Jackson and hanged him to the tree, and not until pictures had been made of him dangling from the end of the rope and he had promised to be good, did the men on the other end of the rope ease up and permit him to again tread the virgin soil.

Baseball games, dancing and various other lines of amusement offered the employees a day of pleasure they will not soon forget. The soreness in evidence among the men who participated in the ball games and other events that required exertion of muscles that have not been called into action for months, perhaps years, is only an incident of the day—and the sport was worth it.

It was the first annual outing of the employees and they expect to make it a regular annual event.

That there is no distinction as between the employees and those higher up in authority in the conduct of the big plants was evidenced by the good spirit that prevailed and the enthusiastic manner in which the higher-ups entered into and mixed in the sports of the employees.

DOUBLE FUNERAL IS HELD FOR TWO SONS REV. E. J. RUDNICK

Arthur, Aged 2, Died Late Saturday Afternoon; Hope For Recovery of Martin

Trinity Lutheran church was this afternoon the scene of a sad occasion, when a double funeral was held for Robert, aged 3, and Arthur, aged 2, sons of Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Rudnick, pastor of the Lutheran church here, who died from what was at first thought to have been poison. Physicians who held a post mortem at midnight Saturday for Arthur, who died at 4 o'clock Saturday afternoon, are now inclined to believe that death was caused by something that the boys ate, probably green locuats picked up from under the tree in the Rudnick yard.

Martin, the five-year-old son who was also made ill, was today reported to be improved, with a fair chance for recovery.

NEW INSURANCE LAWS FAVORED BY STATE AGENTS

Delegates to Convention Here Vote For Revision of California Insurance Code

The adoption of a resolution urging the appointment of a state commission to revise the old or draft a new California insurance code, featured the closing meeting of the state insurance agents' convention held here on Saturday. The resolution was adopted after a splendid address by John W. Stetson of Oakland, attorney for the insurance department, in which he strongly condemned the present insurance laws in this state. He said the laws are lax, and that it is possible for insurance companies to do business here which are unable to meet their obligations. He urged a new code for the protection of the people of the state.

The convention also adopted a resolution condemning the use of banks as insurance agents. This followed a talk by E. C. Foster of Madera. A resolution was also adopted thanking the Santa Ana Insurance Club for entertaining the convention this year.

Jay W. Stevens gave his fire prevention lecture before the convention Saturday afternoon, and it came well up to expectations. Mr. Stevens, who is chairman of the fire prevention bureau of the Pacific, gave his truths in a forcible manner, and by words and moving pictures showed the importance of using the most extreme care to prevent fires. His interest in fire prevention, he said, came to fever heat when as a fireman in Portland, it became his duty to tell a mother of the death of her son who had been unwittingly locked up and burned to death after the boy and a small brother had set the house afire while playing with matches. The campaign he inaugurated when he later became fire marshal of Portland reduced the loss ratio to 20 per cent. Where an average of four Portland children had been burned to death each month previously, the last time he had visited Portland it had been 20 months since such an occurrence.

Efforts will be made at some future time to get Mr. Stevens to give his illustrated lecture before a Santa Ana mass meeting.

Mac O. Robbins, secretary of the Santa Ana Insurance Club and Pacific Coast president of the National Association of Insurance Agents, talked briefly to the convention on the unity of local agents and the splendid manner in which the Pacific Coast is lining up with the national association.

After an auto ride through the Lemon Heights and Villa Park citrus districts, the party proceeded to the Orange County Park, where the closing meeting of the convention was held, following a steak barbecue. Will P. Stephens, past president of the state association, was toastmaster and several short talks were given by members of the jolly crowd.

A "stunt" of this gathering was a kangaroo court, presided over by Judge Cox and two big six-shooters. District Attorney Koepsel read a complaint, charging all members of the Ancient Order of Blue Goose, composed of traveling insurance men, with disturbing the peace during initiation of new members Saturday afternoon. The judge declared them guilty, and sentenced each to buy $2 worth of Thrift Stamps. There were no appeals from the court's judgment, and the total supply of $100 worth was quickly disposed of. Dancing completed the evening's entertainment.

Officers for the ensuing year were elected as follows: President, L. S. Hotchkiss of Oakland; first vice-president, Matt T. Mancha of Los Angeles; second vice-president, Walter P. Casey of Brawley, and secretary, E. H. McCandlish of Oakland.

The next convention will be held in the northern part of the state.

ISSUES CALL FOR HIGH GRADE TECHNICAL MEN FOR NITRATE PLANT

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 20.—An urgent call for high-grade technical men and skilled operatives to fill war positions in industrial establishments was made today through the Civil Service, by the United States Army Ordnance. Salaries as high as $6000 a year will be paid men qualifying for certain places.

The men most vitally needed are to be employed in Nitrate Plant No. 1, which, opening almost immediately, will take nitrates from the air, thereby releasing a great amount of ship tonnage used until now in bringing saltpeter mined in Chile to the United States. The nitrates will be used in connection with high explosives—tnt, or trinitrotoluol, and picric acid—stuffs that explode shell and shrapnel against the Hun.

Chemists and chemical engineers; men experienced in the manufacture of gas; mechanical engineers on high pressure apparatus; engineers to take charge of power houses; foremen of machine shops; junior mechanical engineers; operatives in gas manufacture; assistant operatives and mechanics are needed to help win the war. The Civilian Personnel Division of the Army Ordnance, at 1330 F street, Washington, is handling applications.

The Ordnance, in issuing its call for the men, is insisting on one point. No plant now working on contracts for the United States or its Allies is to be handicapped by the loss of a man. No applications, therefore, will be accepted from government employees or employees of war-work plants unless written consent comes from the head of the establishment. Men of military age accepting appointment will not avoid the obligations of the selective service law.

COUNTY TO RAISE OVER $63,500 FOR RED CROSS

SANTA ANA TEAMS GATHER TONIGHT FOR FAST DRIVE

Canvassing Has Commenced
In Some of the Districts

Orange county Red Cross forces have commenced their drive by which no less than $63,500 is to be raised in the county as this county's contribution to the $100,000,000 being raised in the United States this week for the American Red Cross.

It is with confidence that the campaign managers all over the county have gone into the drive. Back of that confidence is the determination of team captains and team members to win. There is no lagging of spirit.

In some parts of the county canvassers were out Saturday in a preliminary sweep. In other parts the drive was begun this morning. Santa Ana's workers will start their canvass tomorrow morning at 8 o'clock, and speed and thoroughness are going to be the aims of every team.

Meeting Tonight

Tonight at 7 o'clock the Santa Ana teams are to meet at James' cafe. Tomorrow noon another meeting for reports and checking up will be held at the same place.

Wednesday noon the teams will

ORANGE COUNTY'S QUOTA FOR RED CROSS IS $63,500
Santa Ana chapter	$22,500
Anaheim chapter	16,000
Fullerton chapter	15,000
Newport Beach chapter	1,000
Orange (branch of Los Angeles chapter)	9,000
Total for county	$63,500

lunch at noon as a part of the regular weekly meeting of the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce. That meeting will be addressed by Robert M. Clarke of Los Angeles, former judge of the superior court of Ventura county and at present deputy attorney general of California.

It is believed that the canvass of those whose names are designated on cards to be given to workers tonight will be finished by Thursday. Arrangements will probably be made by the teams for a clean-up day, either Thursday or Friday of this week.

There is no reason why any person should await the call of a solicitor in order to make a pledge to the Red Cross. In fact, there is every reason why each person should make a pledge without being called upon. Pledge cards can be secured from any member of the teams, at the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce or at Red Cross headquarters at the armory.

Santa Ana's chapter consists of the central organization at Santa Ana with numerous branches in the southern part of the county.

Tustin has only recently organized as a branch, and in the original appointment of quotas Tustin was included with Santa Ana. Some division of the quota will probably be made at the meeting tonight, which will be attended by the Tustin team, of which A. E. Bennett is chairman.

PLEDGES TO RED CROSS CAN BE PAID IN FOUR MONTHLY PAYMENTS

First Payment Is Set For July
1—Can Be Paid All at Once

Red Cross pledges can be paid in four monthly installments, each installment to be one-fourth of the amount subscribed.

A subscriber can pay cash at the time the subscription is made, or the full amount can be paid at any time after the subscription is made.

Under the installment arrangement, twenty-five per cent of the subscription will be due on July 1, another twenty-five per cent on August 1, the third payment on September 1 and the last payment on October 1.

Each subscriber is to be given a small calendar showing a Red Cross upon the calendar two or three days ahead of the day that a payment is due. This Red Cross is meant to be a reminder of the obligation. Attached to the calendar will be remittance slips.

Collections will be made in Santa Ana this time, instead of in Los Angeles. Fred Rafferty, chairman of the finance committee, will have charge of the collections. Payments can be made to Harry Hansen, the treasurer. This week payments can be made, if the subscriber wishes, to the solicitor.

W. S. S. FULLERTON TEAMS STARTED AT 9 A. M.

FULLERTON, May 20.—Fullerton's drive for the Red Cross started at 9 o'clock when teams gathered for the campaign, and are now actively in the field getting subscriptions.

The quota given Fullerton chapter is $15,000, and that quota has been subdivided into the following:

Fullerton, East and West Orange, $5750; Placentia, $2375; Yorba Linda, $750; Olinia, $1000; Brea, $2375; Buena Park, $1250; La Habra, $1500.

Thomas L. McFadden of Placentia is campaign chairman, and he has thoroughly organized the chapter's area, with the result that the work is to be done with dispatch.

The team captains follow:

Mrs. A. H. Sittin, Mrs. J. Eadington, M. A. Howard, Mrs. A. O. Stovall, S. N. Fuller, Miss Mabel Cleaver, A. Pritchard, Mrs. Menges, Mrs. D. L. Newton, Mrs. A. H. W. S. S. 'SECRET STUFF' TO BE PULLED AT LAGUNA

LAGUNA BEACH, May 20.—A large committee of workers started the campaign here this morning and the week will be devoted to gathering in funds for the Red Cross. Some "secret stuff" will be pulled here to gather in contributions, disclosure of the plans at this time not being permissible.

Next Sunday will be a gala day at the beach, when a Los Angeles band will be here to give a concert. It is a fine musical organization and it is expected that hundreds of Southern Californians will spend the day here.

Mrs. Bassord is chairman of the drive and she and Mrs. Lillian Taylor, secretary of the Red Cross, have been active in organizing the plans.

W. S. S. HUNTINGTON BEACH TO START TOMORROW

HUNTINGTON BEACH, May 20.—This district, which extends as far as Talbert, has a quota of $2000 to raise in the Red Cross campaign, and several committees will start canvassing tomorrow. Judge W. H. Thomas of Santa Ana spoke at the Methodist church last night and gave a stirring address in appealing to the people to get back to the committees and give for the Red Cross to the last dollar.

Joseph Vavra is city chairman, and he has appointed as chairman for the city district F. H. McElfresh, for the factory district A. M. O'Brien and for the country district Joe Parsons of Talbert. Two days will see the work completed, in the opinion of Vavra.

PARADE USHERS IN RED CROSS WEEK IN THIS DISTRICT

Hundreds of Uniformed Women Tell of Devotion and Sacrifice

That the American Red Cross comes close home to Orange county was demonstrated Saturday in parades and demonstrations held in various communities.

Here in Santa Ana several hundred women marching in the uniforms of the American Red Cross gave evidence of the fact that through the Red Cross the civilian population by some measure of sacrifice is backing the soldiers at the front.

The parade was for the Red Cross only. All over the country parades were held at the request of President Wilson, who found that demonstrations of that nature would fittingly usher in the $100,000,000 drive of the American Red Cross.

The Parade Starts

The parade started from Red Cross headquarters at the Armory on Birch street, with the Santa Ana Band leading. W. J. Lindsey, grand marshal, led the parade, with his aides, Misses Mary Collins and Fannie Smart, on horseback.

A line of wee tots, each bearing a flag, came next. This was an impressive bit of the parade, for, indeed, this war of the Allies is being fought for the children of all time. The feature was arranged by the Girls War Service League.

Red Cross Workers

The long line of women in uniforms of the Red Cross was an inspiring sight.

First came the manager, Mrs. Jeanette Magill, and the departmental chairmen, followed by the instructors.

The first were headresses of blue, and the instructors headresses of red. After them came the class members, 250 of them, all in white, excepting the distinguishing marks of the Red Cross—a distinguishing mark of wonderful import the world around. Upon the head-band of each and at the throat of each was the familiar, loved sign of the Red Cross.

Two men marched in uniform. They were W. E. Ward and J. S. Runyon, members of a Monday evening class that meets at the Armory for the making of surgical dressings.

Shop and Lunch-Room

Following the class members came the grey uniforms of the women who have charge of the Red Cross Shop, and then the white uniformed section of those who conduct the Red Cross lunch-room.

The section for the luncheons department carried a service flag with thirteen stars upon it. This flag represents the husbands and sons of women engaged in helping the Red Cross in that department of the work here.

The faithful knitters, designated by Red Cross headbands and arm bands, were next in line.

Impressive Feature

One of the most pleasing features of the parade was the representation made for the Junior Red Cross, to which every school child in the jurisdiction of the Santa Ana chapter—thirty-two schools—belongs.

Two Shetland ponies led the division. Dozens of girls of the intermediate school marched in a solid square. Upon the heads and shoulders of some were draperies of red. These formed the Red Cross. Those with draperies of white formed the field of white.

Officers—Branches

The second and last section was led by C. J. Schultz. First came an automobile with officers of the Santa Ana chapter. Upon each side of the automobile appeared a beautiful flower piece, a Red Cross of geraniums, set in a field of white carnations.

Automobiles followed, with workers and chairmen and instructors. Various branches were represented. Irvine's automobile was beautifully decorated with flowers, a Red Cross in flowers being draped over the hood.

All of the branches and auxiliaries were represented.

One of the features of the parade that attracted a lot of attention was a group of boys of the manual training department of Intermediate school under the direction of A. M. Davis. This group was upon a truck and was busily engaged in making shipping boxes for the local chapter of the Red Cross. These boys for some months past have been making all of the shipping boxes used by the local chapter.

WILL SMOKE OUT THE SLACKERS AT NEWPORT

NEWPORT BEACH, May 20.—Robinson Hall, who has downed 28 German planes, will be one of the speakers at a big meeting to be held at the Balboa Theater tonight as the start of the Red Cross drive. Harry Elliott, an attorney of Los Angeles, will also speak. Moving pictures of war scenes will be a part of the program.

L. G. Swales is chairman of the drive and he has surrounded himself with men and women on committees who are workers. Newport and the district will go over the top and then some, according to Swales and A. B. Roussele. No detail has been omitted that is necessary to a thorough and effective campaign.

Rabbi Hecht of Los Angeles will be the speaker at a meeting to be held at the Harper church Thursday evening and Friday night the Junior Red Cross will give a program at the same place.

"S. O. S." (Smoke Out the Slackers) is the slogan that has been adopted by the live ones at the beach. A. B. Roussele, Geo. P. Wilson, R. M. Durkee and Dr. B. F. Raiche have been appointed as the vigilantes committee.

Following are the committees and the districts they will work in:

Harper and Fairview—L. O. Bostwick, chairman; Geo. Hall, Mrs. Geo. Huntington and J. Davis.

District No. 1, from Main street south to end of spit, excluding business firms, but including Balboa Island—Chairman, Mrs. Ed Rogers; assistants, Mrs. Cordie Rodgers, Mrs. Frank Rinehart.

District No. 2, from Main street to Monterey, excluding business firms—Chairman, Mrs. W. W. Crosier; assistants, Mrs. Edith Wallace and Morgan.

District No. 3, business firms, societies, etc.—Chairman, Mrs. Mirickel; assistants, Charles Way and Fred W. Beckwith.

District No. 4, Bay Island, and from Monterey north to 19th street—Chairman, Mrs. Bertha Harper; assistants, Mrs. C. K. Douglass and Mrs. Lew H. Wallace.

Secretary, Mrs. Tom O. Jay; publicity and speaker committee, Mrs. A. B. Roussele; special committees for advance contributions, Dr. B. F. Raiche, A. B. Roussele, L. S. Wilkinson.

Newport District, territory from 19th north to city limits—Chairman, Mrs. J. A. Porter; assistants, Mrs. Ida P. Durkee, Thomas A. Robinson, Mrs. M. M. Haviland and Mrs. Terrel Jasper and Mrs. Simberg.

There will be bulletin boards at the Balboa Pavilion, East Newport, Newport post office and Harper store, where a list of the names of all subscribers will be posted as the drive progresses.

W. S. S. LAKE EXPECTS TO PUT 100 PER CENT OVER

GARDEN GROVE, May 20.—With a parade of school children and a big mass meeting at the Ross Cooper tablecloth tonight, Garden Grove expects to raise most of her quota tonight. The children of seven schools will join in a parade about 7:15 this evening and the mass meeting will follow. Dr. Knowles of Los Angeles, who has had experience in Russian Red Cross work will be one of the speakers and a representative of the Japanese consul of Los Angeles also will make an address.

The Grove's fund already has been started by fifteen men pledging $25 each. The quota is $1000 but Drive Chairman Lake expects the community will over-subscribe 50 per cent, with possibility of making it 100 per cent.

The permanent committee on war activities will probably make a canvass tomorrow or later, and will work among those who do not attend the mass meeting tonight and do their share in subscribing.

W. S. S. THREE COMMITTEES TO WORK AT CAPISTRANO

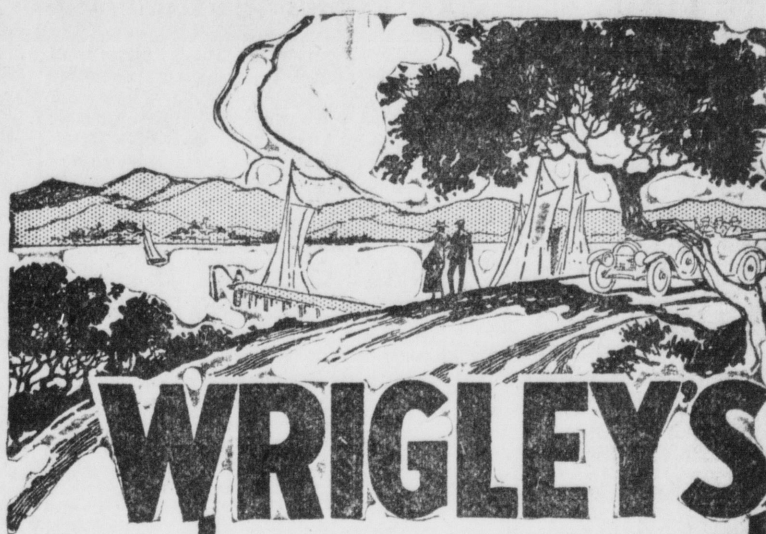

CAPISTRANO, May 20.—With Henry Van der Leek as chairman for the drive here, the campaign starts with arrangements made for completing the big territory within two days. Three committees have been appointed and it is expected the quota of $750 will be over-subscribed within the two days. And to make the canvass within that period means fast work, for the district is large and composed mostly of ranchers. Van der Leek, Mrs. John O. Forster and Albert Pryor will form one committee. John Daneri, John Landell and Miss C. Van der Leek will compose the second and the third will be composed of E. Elson, Aaron Buchheim and Mrs. R. B. Cook.

W. S. S. WILL RUT MEN OUT OF BED TO GET FUNDS

EL TORO, May 20.—In bed or out, men on the farms and the big farmers themselves will have to "come through" with Red Cross funds, for Mrs. Nellie Munger and Carl Mock, who have the drive in charge, are going after them—one and all. The quota is $1000.

These two form the only committee that will work in this district and as everybody is busy with farming operations, the solicitors will do their work in the evenings. It would be almost impossible to chase over all the ranches and locate the men at their work, so the canvassers will happen around in the evening about supper time to get subscriptions for the Red Cross.

"We will do practically all of our work at night, and if it is necessary we will roust the men out of bed," said Mrs. Nellie Munger this morning, in discussing plans for the campaign. It will probably take all of this week to complete the work.

Call to California

BY GOVERNOR WILLIAM D. STEPHENS

The American Red Cross has been well named "The Greatest Mother in the World." It is founded upon the spirit of absolute unselfishness and self-sacrifice and in its ministering to a stricken world it carries into daily practice the endless patience and unbounded sympathy of the mother for her children. It brings comfort and rest to suffering humanity the world over. It takes unto its beneficent bosom the sick and wounded, the homeless and starving and breathes into them new life and strength.

The first war fund raised a year ago has been expended in relief work among the countries devastated by the war, in equipping our own Army and Navy Base Hospitals, and other necessary war relief and preparation. We are—from May 20 to May 27, inclusive—asked to contribute another $100,000,000.

No one who loves his country can hesitate to give to such a cause and when we give let us remember that the amount we give may determine whether or not the ones we love will lie wounded, suffering and unattended or be gathered up into the merciful arms of "The Greatest Mother in the World."

It is my earnest hope that the contribution California makes will be a demonstration of the deep appreciation which we all feel for the work of the American Red Cross.

LIGHT WALNUT CROP. OUTLOOK AT PRESENT TIME

Larger Nuts Expected; Average Crop Will Be 50% of Normal, Prospect

The walnut crop this year will be approximately 40 to 50 per cent of a normal crop, according to pre-season estimates of O. H. Burke, secretary of the Santa Ana Valley Walnut Growers' Association, today. He has visited over a hundred groves during the past few days, and the shortage, according to his statement, will be caused by the excessive heat last June which literally burned up many of the fruit stems. Last year's crop was about 80 per cent of normal.

The June drop this year will be light according to Mr. Burke's prediction. The nuts, he says, will be large, and in weight the crop will be probably 50 per cent of normal.

A feature of this year's walnut outlook, states Mr. Burke, is that one grove may have a 50 per cent crop while just across the road there may be a full crop. This will be due to the fact that the grower across the road left his cover crop standing until late last year, and his grove did not suffer greatly from the heat wave last June.

"Experience has taught walnut growers, as well as citrus men, that groves where there is a cover crop suffer less from heat," said Mr. Burke. "I have known this for some time but didn't use the knowledge with my own grove because I wanted it to look nice. Consequently my grove was damaged by last year's heat, and this year the cover crop stands."

Mr. Burke recently visited walnut groves in Ventura county and states the crop there will be about normal, as heat damage last year was slight.

Pomona Crop Light
From present indications there will be a light crop of English walnuts in the Pomona district this fall, but prices will overbalance the shortage.

TO RESIST THE ATTACK

of the germs of many diseases such as Grip, Malaria, means for all of us—fight or die. These germs are everywhere in the air we breathe. The odds are in favor of the germs, if the liver is inactive and the blood impure.

What is needed most is an increase in the germ-fighting strength. To do this successfully you need to put on healthy flesh, rouse the liver to vigorous action, so it will throw off these germs, and purify the blood so that there will be no "weak spots," or soil for germ-growth.

We claim for Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery that it does all this in a way peculiar to itself.

It cures troubles caused by torpid liver or impure blood. All druggists, liquid or tablets.

Send Dr. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y., 10 cents for trial package.

SACRAMENTO, CAL.—"I have used Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for eczema, and found it very good," Mrs. ANNIE ALBRIGHT, 324 6th Ave.

LOS ANGELES, CAL.—"I will gladly tell of the relief and cure Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery gave me. I was sick with troubles of stomach, liver, etc., and La Grippe with all its attending ailments. When all else failed Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery did the good work. I also took 'Pleasant Pellets' for biliousness, with grand success. I write with gratitude to tell others of the relief that is in store for them. Do not delay but hasten to get the above remedies if suffering from any indisposition!"—SAMUEL KALISK, 700 Euclid Avenue.

say prominent growers there. While it is somewhat early to make a definite estimate of the crop, those who have been observing the groves this spring and whose familiarity with the walnut industry makes them good judges, say the prospect is for less than a normal crop. A. W. Lee, one of the principal growers in the walnut district, stated that he had examined many trees and had discovered that a great many blooms were in ones instead of clusters of twos and threes, as is the case when there is a normal crop.

IRVINE ORGANIZED FOR THE CAMPAIGN

IRVINE, May 20.—H. J. Harkelroad has been made chairman of the drive committee here and he has everything lined up for putting this section over. Soliciting committees will have to do much of their work in the evenings because of the fact that the farmers and employees are busy putting in their crops.

PLANS COMPLETED AT WINTERSBURG

WINTERSBURG, May 20.—With George W. Moore responsible for this section doing its share in raising the county quota, there is no doubt but that the community will more than make good. Plans have been completed for the work in hand and it will be out of the way before the end of the week.

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL NEWS NOTES FROM ORANGE CITY

ORANGE, May 20.—The Harry Winslow home at 629 So. Orange street was the scene of a very pretty wedding Friday evening when Miss Adeline Winslow became the bride of Romaine Canfield.

At 8:30 o'clock the young couple, unattended, took their place under a large American flag. Here the marriage ceremony was read by Rev. John E. Hall of the First Methodist church.

The bride was charmingly gowned in white satin and carried a bouquet of lilies. The bridegroom, who is a member of the signal corps, wore his uniform of khaki. Pink sweet peas and maiden hair fern were used in decorating the rooms.

There were fifty guests present. After the ceremony light refreshments were served.

The bridal couple left for a short honeymoon trip, at the close of which the bride will return to Orange to make her home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Winslow, while the bridegroom will return to resume his duties at Camp Kearny.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Canfield have attended Orange Union high school and are popular among the younger set. Their wedding comes as a pleasant culmination of a school-day romance. Mr. Canfield is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Canfield of East Palmyra.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Johnson entertained a number of friends at their home on North Center street in honor of their 54th wedding anniversary. The occasion was celebrated with a pleasant evening of games and music, light refreshments being served at a late hour.

Those enjoying the affair were Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Haynes, Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Haynes and daughter, Dorothy, Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Haynes and daughters, Enid and Shirley and Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Talmade.

The marriage of Miss Gertrude Anthony and Edward Weiss occurred at the Anthony home on North Glassell street. Rev. J. E. Hall officiated.

The bridal couple left after the ceremony on a wedding trip to San Diego, going from there to Douglas, Okla., where they will make their future home. Mr. Weiss is a druggist but expects to be called soon to the service of his country.

Coming next Thursday, Friday and Saturday, May 23, 24, 25—Mateer's One-Cent sale. Wait for it.

AMERICANS MAY BE HELD FOR DRIVE IN SPRING

Impatience With Long Periods of Training, However, May Force Action This Year

BY J. W. T. MASON
(United Press War Expert)
NEW YORK, May 18.—Expectations that there will be 1,500,000 soldiers in France at the end of the present year indicate that the most favorable time for America's great offensive against von Hindenburg will be next spring.

The decision of the military authorities to train the Americans in actual conditions of warfare by brigading them with French and British veterans before sending them to fight as separate units, means that a considerable period must elapse after American forces arrive in France before they are used for an independent offensive. If a sudden crisis arises anywhere along the western front, it may then become necessary to employ Americans for major operations, regardless of their period of training; but not otherwise.

Since General Foch has shown an inflexible determination not to be tempted into wasting his man power by minor assaults, it is to be expected that he will do everything possible to prevent a premature use of the American armies. Pressure, however, will probably be exerted very soon for the organization of an American offensive in an effort to end the war by a military decision this year. This pressure will be due to certain impatience with long periods of preparatory training, which exists in every country.

Should General Foch be forced to submit to so dangerous an influence, an American offensive will occur this summer. Otherwise it is reasonable to expect that only limited operations will be conducted by the allies during the summer months, principally for the purpose of training the Americans and keeping the Germans in a state of nervous expectancy. Whether by autumn enough troops will be in France to warrant the complete assumption of the initiative by General Foch cannot now be definitely foretold. A strong reason against autumn offensives is that they may be interrupted by winter weather at critical times.

But there is no doubt that next spring the American troops in France will be equal to accepting the responsibility for conducting a sustained offensive on a gigantic scale. By next spring, the central powers will have gone through another devastating winter under reduced food rations. Their morale undoubtedly will be lower than it is now. They will thus be subjected to the greater reaction from the effect of an American advance into German territory toward the Rhine.

THIS WEEK, NERVOUS MOTHER

Tells How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Restored Her Health.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"I was very weak, always tired, my back ached, and I felt sickly most of the time. I went to a doctor and he said I had nervous indigestion, which added to my weak condition kept me worrying most of the time—and he said if I could not stop that, I could not get well. I heard so much about Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound that I decided to try it. I took it for a week and felt a little better. I kept it up for three months, and I feel fine and can eat anything now without distress or nervousness."—Mrs. J. WORTHLINE, 2842 North Taylor St., Philadelphia, Pa.

The majority of mothers nowadays, however, there are so many demands upon their time and strength; the result is invariably a weakened, run-down, nervous condition with headaches, back-ache, irritability and depression—and soon more serious ailments develop. It is at such periods in life that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will restore a normal healthy condition, as it did to Mrs. Worthline.

Perfect quiet was prescribed for her and this will in time adjust the trouble. As Miss Gothard is just completing her sophomore year it seems inopportune for this to occur at this time, but as her grades so far for the term have been good the same average for the few weeks of the remainder of the term will be allowed her.

A large number of citizens gathered at T. B. Talbert's office Friday afternoon and formulated plans for the Red Cross drive which will start promptly at 8 a. m. Tuesday. The city was divided into six precincts for the more efficient work, and captains were appointed for each precinct, with helpers. 1st, C. H. Dunning, with Dr. Shank and W. M. Adair; 2nd, A. W. Griffith, H. B. Campbell, C. W. Warner; 3rd, G. S. Bergey, R. C. Turner, Mr. Bentley; 4th, H. V. Anderson; 5th, C. R. Nutt; 6th, C. E. Laverne.

The First National Bank will act as treasurer and all who prefer to make monthly payments can leave the money with the bank. Cash payments will be made to the collectors and receipt given. Joseph Vavra has charge of the drive in this district, assisted by F. H. McElfresh.

Mrs. Lee Michaels died Friday, and funeral services were held Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, in charge of Rev. R. L. McKee. Interment in the local cemetery.

Will Learman died a few days ago in Colorado. He resided at this place for a number of years and was transferred from the sugar factory here to the same work in Colorado, where it was thought his health might improve, but consumption finally did its work, and he has passed on to his reward.

Mrs. E. F. Hoger will open up the Blue Front restaurant on Ocean avenue this week, which has been closed for some time.

Mr. C. A. Creamer has re-opened the blacksmith shop on Third street, which has been closed since January. He is a well known workman and the renewal of this business will be welcomed by all who have work in that line.

The Sunday school of the Christian church enjoyed a picnic at the Orange county park Saturday. The Methodist Sunday school also plans on having one in the near future at the same place.

WINTERSBURG NEWS BUDGET

WINTERSBURG, May 18.—Mrs. W. F. Slater's sister-in-law, Mrs. Tom Clay, and little daughter, Ruth, of Los Angeles, Mrs. Clay's sister, Mrs. Nicholson, and two daughters of Manitoaba, Canada, arrived Thursday at the Slater home to remain for a week end visit.

Bean planting is now practically finished in the eastern portion of the Wintersburg community. After the planting started it was carried on with a rush this season so did not last many days.

Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Davis enjoyed a visit Sunday from their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Gillett and little son, Mrs. Gillett's mother, Mrs. McDonald, sister, Mrs. Long, and her son and daughter.

Mrs. Wm. Slater went to Los Angeles Monday for a visit at the home of her sister, Miss Jennie Clay. Their sister, Mrs. Geo. Murdock of Strathmore, and Mr. Murdock were there on a short visit at the time.

WINTERSBURG, May 20.—Miss Mary Gothard suffered a stroke of facial paralysis on Thursday, caused from the breaking of a small blood vessel in the head. When the injury was received is not known and the attending physician states that a very slight knock only was necessary to cause the trouble. She felt a slight numbness in that side of her face on Wednesday but thought little of it until the twitching sensation was felt the next day while at school.

She walked to her home, which is about two miles from the high school, in the evening the school bus being out of commission for the time being and soon after reaching there decided best to consult a physician as the numbing sensation was decidedly worse.

Perfect quiet was prescribed for her and this will in time adjust the trouble. As Miss Gothard is just completing her sophomore year it seems inopportune for this to occur at this time, but as her grades so far for the term have been good the same average for the few weeks of the remainder of the term will be allowed her.

Nujol Habits—and No More Piles

Read this remarkable letter:

NUJOL LABORATORIES,
STANDARD OIL CO. (New Jersey),
BAYONNE, N. J.

Gentlemen:

For 8 years I was a clerk in a bank on the Pacific Coast, it necessarily being a confining position. During that time, and also before, I was troubled with bilious headaches (one every two months or so) and suffered with chronic constipation. The last three or four years I have had piles in bad shape, trying several doctors with little relief.

Moving to Forsyth about 2 years ago, I tried outside work for 9 months, but seemed to be as bad as before.

Saw a "Nujol" ad. one day in some magazine and thought I'd give it a trial.

In all I have taken three bottles. After about the third or fourth tablespoonful the benefits were very marked, and since using same I have not had one headache and am now as regular as the sun himself and the piles are getting much better.

Nothing I can say or write can anywhere near express the wonderful benefit your remedy has done for me.

Very truly yours,

November 21, 1916.

(Name and address on request).

Clockwork

HERE is a serious case of chronic constipation and painful hemorrhoids (piles) both effectively relieved by Nujol. Nujol for constipation

Her father, George Gothard, who has been very ill the past week and unable to leave his bed, began to show signs of improvement on Friday evening and it is hoped will soon be recovered.

Mr. and Mrs. Winger of Lamanda Park, the latter a sister of Homer Sprinkle, spent Tuesday as guests of him and his wife.

W. E. Gerhart, field boss for the Holly Sugar Company, and his wife, attended the picnic given Saturday to employees of the sugar companies of this county at Orange County Park.

Miss Anna Clark of Talbert was an overnight guest Friday at the Crane home and on Saturday accompanied Misses Floateale and Mary Crane to the forensic contest in Santa Ana.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Sprinkle visited for the day Wednesday in Redondo.

George Gerhart and George McGurk spent the latter part of last week on a pleasant fishing expedition in Trabuca Canyon. They left here on Thursday, returning Saturday well laden with their spoils. They found fishing time and fishermen in plenty in that vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Sprinkle were Los Angeles visitors on Friday.

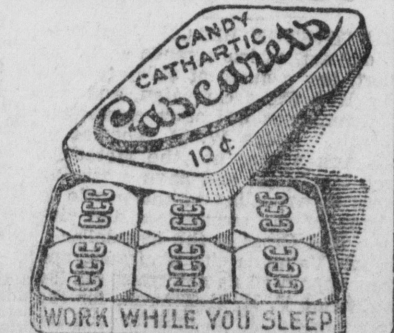

Mr. and Mrs. George Gerhart were among those in attendance at the picnic held Saturday by the Christian church at Orange County Park.

The spelling match between the Oceanview and Westminster school held Friday evening at Bradbury hall gave the local school the honors of complete victory. The contest was between the sixth, seventh and eighth grades, all three being won by the locals. Rev. M. Ross gave out the words. A good crowd was present and the baskets which were auctioned off went well, $19 being taken in.

The Ocean View school closes next week and with the closing examinations and the preparations for the entertainment which will be given next Friday evening, the pupils and teachers are very busy.

YOUR RED CROSS FIGHTING DOLLARS

Your Army and Navy fights to make the "World Safe for Democracy".
Your Red Cross fights to make it fit for Democracy.

Fights for your soldiers—yours and your allies—in trench, canteen and hospital.

Fights for the little children, to save them for the nations' upbuild-ings of tomorrow.

Fights for the swarms of homeless, dazed refugees and "repatriates" thrown out from the war's black whirlpool.

Fights the white plague, tuberculosis, that takes a greater toll than lead and steel.

Fights in every war stricken country to uphold a wrecked and suffering humanity in its struggle for a free existence.

One hundred million dollars to "carry on."

No power of taxation, no interest rate to urge those dollars.

Each one a volunteer, sent willingly and by the heart alone.

The noblest fund of all the billions of this war's vast budgets—because the freest given.

What share is yours? What sacrifice to mobilize those Fighting Red Cross Dollars?

Every cent of every dollar received for the Red Cross War Fund goes for War Relief.

The American Red Cross is the largest and most efficient organization for the relief of suffering that the World has ever seen.

It is made up almost entirely of volunteer workers, the higher executives being without exception men accustomed to large affairs, who are in almost all cases giving their services without pay.

It is supported entirely by its membership fees and by voluntary contributions.

It is today bringing relief to suffering humanity, both military and civil, in every War torn allied country.

It plans tomorrow to help in the work of restoration throughout the world.

It feeds and clothes entire populations in times of great calamity.

It is there to help your soldier boy in his time of need.

With its thousands of workers, its tremendous stores and smooth running transportation facilities, it is serving as America's advance guard—and thus helping to win the war.

Congress authorizes it.

President Wilson heads it.

The War Department audits its accounts.

Your Army, your Navy and your Allies enthusiastically endorse it.

Twenty-two million Americans have joined it.
